RUTHERFORDTON — Donny James hit on 11 of 18 passing attempts, most of them in the second half, to lead the South Point Red Raiders to a 24-0 victory over the R-S Central Hilltoppers Friday night in a Southwest 3-A Conference game here.

James threw for 168 yards, hitting wide receiver Cotton McCollough six times for 97 yards, including the initial Red Raider touchdown, a nine-yard strike in the third quarter.

Dennis Isles, who led the Raider ground game with 74 yards on 10 carries, scored the next Raider touchdown in the game period on a 44-yard scamper.

The last South Point score came on a one-yard plunge by Willie Cobb.

The Red Raiders of Coach Jim Biggerstaff are now 4-1-1 overall and 4-1 in the conference.
