

Raiders down Shelby

SHELBY — South Point's Red Raiders defeated the Shelby Golden Lions Friday night at Blanton Memorial Stadium, 14-7, and bounced back into the Southwestern Conference championship picture.

South Point moved 30 yards for its first score. Quarterback Joe Shepherd's 20-yard pass to Steve Davis put the ball on the Shelby 10, and three plays later, Shepherd sneaked over from the one and Karl Witzke kicked the first of his two extra points.

The Raiders scored with 6:45 left in the second period, marching 79 yards in nine plays. Davis had a 36-yard run to the Shelby 18, and halfback Dennis Isles later scored from the five.

Shelby's only touchdown came in the third period when the Lions marched 86 yards in 13 plays, with quarterback Robert Kirkpatrick going the final three yards.

South Point, following an opening 29-8 loss to Chase, has bounced back with two impressive wins going into a key home game next Friday against East Gaston.
