

For third straight win

South Point burns Bulldogs, 49-0

The South Point Red Raiders marched to a 49-0 victory over the Bulldogs of Burns High in a game played Saturday night at the Raiders' Lineberger Stadium in Belmont.

Steve Davis got the Raiders on the board quickly. He scored on a dazzling 46-yard run four minutes into the game, capping an 85-yard scoring drive. Davis also carried the ball for the two point conversion, and the Raiders were on top, 8-0.

Fernandez Grier then scored two consecutive touchdowns for the Raiders. The first came on a one-yard plunge. Tommy Bain was true with the point-after-touchdown kick, and the Raiders led, 15-0.

Grier then scored again on a four-yard run, also in the first quarter. Bain again was true with the kick, and South Point led 22-0 at the end of the first quarter.

South Point quarterback Joe Shepherd scored the next touchdown, igniting a 20-point second quarter for Coach Jim Biggerstaff's club. Shepherd scored on a one-yard run. Bain again booted the extra point.

Junior Robbie Suggs returned a punt for 60 yards for the next South Point tally. Bain missed on the extra point try.

William Reid followed suit, scoring on an 86-yard punt return for the Raiders, and Bain was on track with the extra point kick to give South Point a 42-0 lead at halftime.

The final Red Raider touchdown came in the third period with Joe Shepherd firing an 11-yard touchdown pass to Jerry Clubb. Bain rounded out the scoring, booting his fifth extra point in the contest. Both clubs played a scoreless fourth quarter, and the final was 49-0.

South Point now owns a 3-0 record for the season.
