

South Point 3 East Rutherford 0

FOREST CITY — Willie Strain kicked a 30-yard field goal with only eight seconds remaining to lift South Point to the win over the previously unbeaten Cavaliers in a rain-plagued Southwestern 3-A Conference tilt.

The winning kick was set up after East Rutherford fumbled in its own territory late in the contest.

The Cavaliers had a chance to break the scoring ice late in the third quarter but South Point's Wendell Cuthbertson picked off a pass by East Rutherford quarterback Morgan McKinney at the Red Raider 12 to end the threat.

The Cavaliers had made it to the South Point 6, but a holding penalty moved them back before Cuthbertson's theft.

East Rutherford's only other scoring opportunity came in the second quarter when place
