RUTHERFORDTON — Todd Harris' extra point made the difference as R-S Central held on to nip South Point's Red Raiders in a Southwestern 3-A matchup.

Harris booted the conversion after the first of two one-yard touchdown runs by Mike McCollum, breaking a 0-0 deadlock in the third period.

South Point closed the gap with a 1-yard scoring burst by Willie Strain later in the third period, but missed the extra point, leaving its deficit at 7-6.

McCollum added another one-yard scoring run late in the third period to make it a 13-7 game, but the Red Raiders came back once more, closing to within a single point on a one-yard run by Strain.
