

R-S Central 30

South Point 13

BELMONT - R-S Central's Hilltoppers came up with a relentless ground and air attack at South Point, throttling the Red Raiders for their second Southwestern 3-A Conference win in three games.

Quarterback Todd Harris accounted for nearly 200 yards in total offense and scored two touchdowns to help R-S Central pull away, dropping South Point to 1-3 in the SWC and 2-6 overall.

Harris rushed for 50 yards and threw for 148, 107 of which went to Josh Skudlarick.

R-S jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead on a 1-yard run by Harris, a 4-yard run by Jermaine Twitty and Harris' 43-yard field goal.

South Point got on the board in the third quarter on a 3-yard run by Moe Crawford, who carried for 74 yards. Crawford has rushed for 902 yards this season.

Wilson led the Red Raiders, gaining 94 yards on 10 carries.
