LAWNDALE — The Burns Bulldogs spread the wealth Friday night. And there was plenty to go around.

Five different people scored for the Bulldogs, on the ground, through the air and from the defensive side of the ball, as they rolled to a rout over South

Point.

Gerard Lee scored twice on passes of 66 and nine yards from Dixon Putnam and added a late extra point to pace the Burns (5-1, 8-2) scoring barrage. Lamont Wells also found the end zone twice, on a 79-yard run and an 18-yard fumble return.

Melvin Montgomery posted a three-yard run and kicked six extra points for Burns, which held a 42-0 lead before allowing the Red Raiders to get on the board.

T.O. Wilson scored both South Point (1-4, 2-7) touchdowns on runs of six and four yards and Ryan Warner added both extra points.
