A South Point fumbled punt led to the Cavaliers' first score on a Darian Logan 29-yard run.

By halftime, all the Raiders had to show was a 26-yard field goal from Brian Ash.

East Rutherford benefitted from more South Point gifts in the second half. Lewis Williams returned a fumble 35 yards for a touchdown. Then Corey Wheeler recovered a blocked punt in South Point's end zone for another score.

Logan was the Cavaliers' main offensive threat, rushing for 215 yards.

South Point falls to 2-4 overall, 1-1 in the Southwestern 3A Conference.

The Cavs have won three straight to go 3-3, 2-0 in league play.
