Red Raiders '75.

When you lose 19 lettermen, those are a lot of shoes to fill, but head football coach and athletic director Jim Biggerstaff at South Point and his assistants have filled a good many of the voids as Biggerstaff starts his seventh season at the Big Red helm.

This year's team will not have the depth as the past two outstanding years, and neither will it have the experience.

But South Point has been blessed with great pride and a great tradition in football and despite its youth the Raiders may very well be in contention in the Southwest 3-A Conference this year.

In addition to an outstanding coaching staff and a top program, South Point is blessed with one of the finest playing facilities in the state in Lineberger Stadium. Assisting Biggerstaff for the seventh straight year will be Earl Lingafeldt and Phil Tate. Both Lingafeldt and Tate have reeled off tremendous won-lost records in girls basketball and baseball in that order at South Point.

Last year's South Point team finished unbeaten during the regular season and was atop the SWC heap at the season's end with a 9-0-1 record.

But Shelby edged the Big Red, 16-14, on a last minute field goal to advance into the WN-CHSAA finals.

Halfback Jerry Auten was named the top offensive player in The Gazatteland area and Mike Painter, a nose-guard headed for East Carolina, was named the area's outstanding defensive player.

Roger Parker, a big tackle, signed a grant-in-aid at North Carolina State, where he will join ex-Raider Jimmy Stowe. Parker was a standout for the winning North Carolina team in the Shrine Bowl. He also played in the East-West game in Greensboro, while Painter played for the South in the North-South game in Greenville, N.C.

Last year's Big Red defensive team was labeled "The Rat Patrol" because of an outstanding defense. They surrendered just 63 points in 11 games for a 5.7 scoring average for the opposition.

Meanwhile, the South Point offensive registered a whopping 345 points for a 31.4 average.

If Biggerstaff and his aides can come up with a forward wall, the team should fare extremely well because South Point has some fast backs.

A Big Tradition To Uphold

"We probably have more speed in the backfield than we've ever had," said Biggerstaff, a Western Carolina grad who was an assistant coach at Rockingham before coming back to his hometown of Belmont in 1969. Biggerstaff will be a Shrine Bowl assistant coach this year and he was head coach of the winning West team in the East-West game in Greensboro two years ago.

Terry Boyles, a halfback last year on offense and defense and second to Auten in team scoring, has been moved to quarterback, where he looked sharp in pre-season drills.

The Raiders have good speed in the backfield with the starters looking to be Donny James and Keith Stone at the halfback posts and Carl Middleton at fullback. All of the starting backfield members are seniors. James was the number two quarterback last year and is also a capable backup to Boyles.

The starting offensive line looks to be Quinn Hall at split end and Ron Stowe at tight end. Both are seniors.

Starting at tackles on offense are Gary Beale, a senior with a bright future and Rodney Phillips, a junior. The guards are seniors, David Willis and Kevin Robinson. At center is a senior, Eric Horsley. Thus the starting offensive team lists 10 seniors and a junior.

On defense, the likely starters are Stowe and Keith Ensley at the ends, Beale and Junior Armstrong at the tackles as the Front Four.

The two inside linebackers are likely to be Willis and hard-hitting senior Willie Cobb, and the two outside linebackers Middleton and Mark Lineberger. Lineberger is a junior. The two defensive halfbacks will probably be Hall and junior Dennie Isles, with James at safety.

After a break-even season of 5-5 in '69, Biggerstaff coached teams have zipped off super marks of 9-1, 12-0-1, 8-2-1, 11-0-1 and 9-1-1. Thus Biggerstaff's winning percentage over the past five is an astonishing .857, the best mark in the WNCHSAA over that length of time.

After some near-misses, the Raiders would like to do something eventually about "going all the way."

Once this team gets some playing experience, the future is bright, not only for this year, but the years ahead.
