1270 — THE VOICE OF THE RAIDERS

Jim Biggerstaff

Jim Biggerstaff, who has led South Point High School football teams to an outstanding 67-15-5 record for the past eight star-studded seasons, is called, in terms of much respect, "Chief" by his fine assistant coaches, and friends.

He is the "Chief" in South Point's football wigwam, making football THE game in town in the communities which encompass South Point High School.

Biggerstaff is a 1954 graduate of old Belmont High School, where he was a star running back on the old Red Raider single wing teams and an outstanding baseball player in the spring.

Biggerstaff attended the University of Tennessee during his freshman year in college, playing wingback on the freshman football team. He transferred to Western Carolina University for his sophomore, junior and senior years, playing fullback for the Catamounts.

After graduating from WCU in 1959, Biggerstaff was Bill Eustler's right-hand man for the powerful Rockingham Rockets and the baseball coach there for 16 years prior to moving back to Belmont to take over the helm of the Red Raiders in football and to serve as the school's athletic director.

One opposing coach has made the comment that "when you play South Point, you feel like a long-tailed cat on a front porch filled with rocking chairs."

In '71, Jim was named the outstanding football coach in North Carolina by the Association of Sports Broadcasters.

Biggerstaff, whose teams play an exciting brand of football out of the Power-I, was the head coach for the West All-Stars in the '74 East-West game in Greensboro, which was won by the West. He was an assistant coach in the '75 Shrine Bowl game in Charlotte, which annually pits the top seniors from North Carolina against a similar group from South Carolina.

In 1956, Coach Biggerstaff married his high school sweetheart, the former Joyce Wilson of Belmont. They have a daughter, Jamie, who is a junior at South Point, and an 11-year-old son, Jeff.

Earl Lingafeldt

Earl Lingafeldt is a 1963 graduate of Drexel High School. He received his A and BS degree in health and physical education at Lenoir-Rhyne college in '66.

While at Lenoir-Rhyne, Earl lettered in football as an outstanding lineman for four years and was named to the All-Conference and All-District college teams during his junior and senior seasons.

After graduating from L-R, he came to Belmont as an assistant coach in charge of the line, a position he still holds on the football staff. The Red Raider linemen are aggressive because Lingafeldt himself was and still is aggressive.

In girls basketball, where Lingafeldt has been the head coach since '69, his teams have compiled a winning percentage of over .800 and have been the scourge of the Southwestern 3-A Conference.

He coached back-to-back WNCHSAA championship girls basketball teams in '72-'73 and '73-'74. He sent five straight teams to the WNCHSAA finals and has coached two All-Staters, Shirle Hart and Beth Beaty. His green sophomores finished fourth in the always-tough SWC last year and big things may lie ahead for the Red Raiderettes this season.

Lingafeldt coaches the track and field team in the spring. He has been an outstanding slow-pitch softball player for the Carolina A's, the defending North Carolina champion, for several seasons.

Earl and his wife, Mozelle, a Cleveland County native, have one daughter, three-year-old Lori. "She can already score a basket with either hand," smiles the redhead.

Phil Tate

Phil Tate, "Mister Baseball" in the Southwestern 3-A Conference, is a 1962 graduate of Belmont High School, where he participated in football, basketball and baseball.

He led the Southwestern 3-A Conference in batting as a second baseman for the Red Raiders as a senior with a .384 average.

Phil played baseball at Western Carolina University from 1962-66. He graduated in '67. Tate completed his masters degree at WCU this past summer.

In football, Phil coaches the offensive backs. He coached the backs at Hunter Huss High School in Gastonia in '67 and '68. He came to South Point in '69, and his SP baseball teams have been practically unbeatable since that time.

Tate's baseball teams have won four conference championships (Southwestern 3-A) outright and had two second-place finishes.

Tate's Red Raider team won the WNCHSAA championship back-to-back in '72 and '73. The Big Red finished as the runner-up team in the association this past spring.

Tate is married to the former Trish Forbes of Belmont and they have two daughters, seven-year-old Kristin and four-year-old Ashley.

"My only son," quips Tate, "is a Heinz mutt named, appropriately, 'Homer.'"

Tate has coached two All-Staters in baseball, Butch Harris, now in the Cincinnati Red organization, and Karl Witzke, who is attending Western Carolina University this fall.

Dr. Sam Shaver

The man with the red jacket on the sidelines and near the South Point bench during the football season has the look of an athlete about him.

Dr. Sam Shaver, the South Point team physician, was, indeed, a star athlete in four different sports in his hometown of Gurden, Ark.

He has been the Big Red team physician "for the love of the sport" for 17 years. South Point is grateful for his many services. One of the most coveted trophies in football presented at each year's Big Red Boosters Club All-Sports banquet is the Dr. Sam Shaver Blocking Trophy.

Dr. Shaver makes the annual presentation himself, and with his wit, he is always a big hit during the brief time he is in front of the microphone.

A quarterback in high school, Dr. Shaver also played basketball, baseball and track and field. Whenever an athlete has problems with various ailments all players run into, Dr. Shaver is quick to diagnose the problem.

Dr. Shaver is a graduate of the University of Arkansas School of Medicine. He received his PHD at the University of Rochester, his BA at American International College, and his MA at the University of Rochester.

Dr. Shaver travels with the team for road games in addition to his sideline watchfulness of both the home and visiting team players at Lineberger Stadium, and seldom misses a game.

His work with the American Legion is legend, both on a local, state and national level.

The South Point High School community is thankful for the services rendered by Dr. Shaver.

SOUTH POINT HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

"Casey would waltz with the strawberry blonde ... and the band played on." Band music, indeed, goes back a long, long way.

High School bands are an integral part of the school and their community. Outstanding bands at football games on a Friday night add color and pomp for the crowd before the game and at halftime.

Seth Kirby is in his third year as director of the South Point High School Red Raider Marching Band. Under Kirby's guidance they are beautiful to watch and listen to.

Kirby, a Mt. Holly native, began his band directing in 1961 at old Dallas High School. He was there for four years, went to Lincolnton High School for one year, then initiated the band program at Hunter Huss High School in Gastonia in '66. He came to SPSHS in 1976.

Seth attended Mars Hill College for two years, then majored in instrumental music for three years at East Carolina University.

Seth and his wife, Brenda, now reside in Belmont. They have three children, 20-year-old Rick, ten-year-old Deana, who is in the fifth grade at Central Elementary, and eight-year-old Chris, who is in the third grade there.

STARTING AT N.C. STATE - Roger Parker, a former South Point scholar-athlete, played in the 1974 Shrine Bowl game in Charlotte and the 1975 East-West All-Star Game in Greensboro. Parker will be playing his junior season as a starting offensive guard for the North Carolina State Wolfpack. Parker is 6-2 and weighs 230 pounds. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Parker.

Shrine Bowl and East-West Game

Since Belmont High School and Cramerton High School consolidated to form South Point High School in 1969, several of the Red Raider stars have played in prestigious post-season games.

One of the highest honors a high school senior football player can attain is to be selected to play in the Shrine Bowl football game each December in Charlotte. It pits 35 of the finest North Carolina seniors against a similar group from South Carolina. The attraction benefits the crippled child, and for a player to be chosen to the team is truly a player's dream turned into reality. The East-West football game in Greensboro, played each July during the coaches clinic there, is also a prestigious honor. During the past eight years, South Point has been represented by the following in the Shrine Bowl game:

| Year | Name |
|------|----------------|
| 1971 | Scott Crawford |
| 1973 | Jim Stowe |
| 1974 | Roger Parker |
