Butch Adams

Butch Adams is a graduate of Ashley High School and Wofford College where he lettered four years in baseball.

After graduating from Wofford, Adams taught two years at Humphrey School in Lowell. He took a coaching position at Holbrook Junior High in 1970, coaching both football and baseball.

Adams is beginning his second full year at South Point, where he is an assistant coach in football, junior varsity basketball coach and boy's track coach. His 1977 and 1978 Raider track teams captured the Gaston County Track Meet and the Southwest Conference championship. His '78 track team finished third in the state meet in Raleigh after winning the regional title.

After only one year at South Point, Adams has developed a deep pride in the overall program of the school.

Adams and his wife, Vicki, and six-year-old son Jason live in Gastonia.

Jim Biggerstaff

Jim Biggerstaff, who has led South Point High School football teams to an outstanding 81-21-5 record for the past 10 star-studded seasons, is called, in terms of much respect, "Chief" by his fine assistant coaches, and friends.

He is the "Chief" in South Point's football wigwam, making football THE game in town in the communities which encompass South Point High School.

Biggerstaff is a 1954 graduate of old Belmont High School, where he was a star running back on the old Red Raider single wing teams and an outstanding baseball player in the spring.

Biggerstaff attended the University of Tennessee during his freshman year in college, playing wingback on the freshman football team. He transferred to Western Carolina University for his sophomore, junior and senior years, playing fullback for the Cata-mounts.

After graduating from WCU in 1959, Biggerstaff was Bill Eustler's right-hand man for the powerful Rockingham Rockets and the baseball coach there for 10 years prior to moving back to Belmont to take over the helm of the Red Raiders in football and to serve as the school's athletic director.

One opposing coach has made the comment that "when you play South Point, you feel like a long-tailed cat on a front porch filled with rocking chairs."

In '71, Jim was named the outstanding football coach in North Carolina by the Association of Sports Broadcasters.

Biggerstaff, whose teams play an exciting brand of football out of the Power-I, was the head coach for the West All-Stars in the '74 East-West game in Greensboro, which was won by the West. He was an assistant coach in the '75 Shrine Bowl in Charlotte, which annually pits the top seniors from North Carolina against a similar group from South Carolina.

In 1956, Coach Biggerstaff married his high school sweetheart, the former Joyce Wilson of Belmont. They have a daughter, Jamie, who is attending Appalachian State University this fall, and a 13-year-old son, Jeff.

What makes our flame-broiled
1/4 pound Double
Cheeseburger
so great?

Lots of zesty catsup and tasty mustard.

A big, toasted four-inch sesame seed bun.

Two four-inch squares of tangy cheese.

Two crunchy slices of pickle.

Two flame-broiled, not fried, meat patties, both of juicy, 100% pure beef.

Twice the meat, twice the cheese...that's what you get when you order the big Double Cheeseburger. Bite into it. Enjoy the blend of flavors...the meat juices and the tangy taste of cheese with a cheddar flavor. This is the cheeselover's cheeseburger, and it's yours at Burger King. Come and get it!

Dr. Sam Shaver

The man with the red jacket on the sidelines and near the South Point bench during the football season has the look of an athlete about him.

Dr. Sam Shaver, the South Point team physician, was, indeed, a star athlete in four different sports in his hometown of Gurden, Ark.

He has been the Big Red team physician "for the love of the sport" for 19 years. One of the most coveted trophies in football presented at each year's Big Red Boosters Club All-Sports banquet is the Dr. Sam Shaver Blocking Trophy.

Dr. Shaver makes the annual presentation himself, and with his wit, he is always a big hit during the brief time he is in front of the microphone.

A quarterback in high school, Dr. Shaver also played basketball, baseball and track and field. Whenever an athlete has problems with various ailments all players run into, Dr. Shaver is quick to diagnose the problem.

Dr. Shaver is a graduate of the University of Arkansas School of Medicine. He received his PhD at the University of Rochester, his BA at American International College, and his MA at the University of Rochester.

Dr. Shaver travels with the team for road games in addition to his sideline watchfulness of both the home and visiting team players at Lineberger Stadium, and seldom misses a game.

His work with the American Legion is legend, both on a local, state and national level. He is now serving an unprecedented fourth term as Auten-Stowe Post 144 Commander. He has also served as a state commander.

The South Point High School community is thankful for the services rendered by Dr. Shaver.

South Point High School

Marching Band

The South Point High School Marching Band you will be watching tonight plays an integral part at the Red Raider football games, at the school, in the community, and in out-of-town participation.

He played in Army bands, specializing primarily with the saxophone and the clarinet. He taught Instrumental Music in Kansas for three years. He came back to Gaston County in 1977, teaching band at Highland and Tryon junior highs for the past two years.

Phil Tate

Phil Tate, "Mister Baseball" in the Southwestern 3-A Conference, is a 1962 graduate of Belmont High School, where he participated in football, basketball, and baseball.

He led the Southwestern 3-A Conference in batting as a second baseman for the Red Raiders as a senior with a .384 average.

Phil played baseball at Western Carolina University from 1962-66. He graduated in '67. Tate completed his masters degree at WCU this past summer.

In football, Phil coaches the offensive backs. He coached the backs at Hunter Huss High School in Gastonia in '67 and '68. He came to South Point in '69, and his SP baseball teams have been practically unbeatable since that time.

Tate's baseball teams have won five conference championships (Southwestern 3-A) outright and had two second-place finishes.

Tate's Red Raider team won the WNCHSAA championship back-to-back in '72 and '73.

Tate is married to the former Trish Forbes of Belmont and they have two daughters, nine-year-old Kristin and six-year-old Ashley.

"My only son," quips Tate, "is a Heinz mutt named, appropriately, 'Homer.'"

Tate has coached two All-Staters in baseball, Butch Harris, formerly in the Cincinnati Red organization, and Karl Witzke, who is attending Western Carolina University this fall.

Earl Lingafeldt

Earl Lingafeldt is a 1963 graduate of Drexel High School. He received his A and BS degree in health and physical education at Lenoir-Rhyne College in '66.

While at Lenoir-Rhyne, Earl lettered in football as an outstanding lineman for four years and was named to the All-Conference and All-District college teams during his junior and senior seasons.

After graduating from L-R, he came to Belmont as an assistant coach in charge of the line, a position he still holds on the football staff. The Red Raider linemen are aggressive because Lingafeldt himself was and still is aggressive.

In girls basketball, where Lingafeldt has been the head coach since '69, his teams have compiled a winning percentage of over .800 and have been the scourge of the Southwestern 3-A Conference. Last year his Raiderettes finished at 26-2, the best record in Raiderette history. It was the greatest girls cage team ever put together in Belmont.

He coached back-to-back WNCHSAA championship girls basketball teams in '72-'73 and '73-'74. He sent five straight teams to the WNCHSAA finals and has coached three All-Staters, Shirle Hart, Beth Beaty, and Punkie Mills.

Lingafeldt coaches the girls track and field team in the spring. He has been an outstanding slow-pitch softball player for the Carolina A's, the defending North Carolina champion, for several seasons.

Earl and his wife, Mozelle, a Cleveland County native, have one daughter, five-year-old Lori. "She can already score a basket with either hand," smiles the redhead.

The Man On The PA Mike

Joe Messer began working on the public address system at Red Raider football games 18 years ago, when he assisted long-time PA man Roscoe Helton.

"I enjoy handling the PA," said Messer, "and I've got a lot of thanks in my heart for Roscoe, who started me in this business."

Messer, a Belmont High School graduate, has many accomplishments. He was Belmont Man of the Year in 1975. He has coached Little League baseball and junior high basketball. He has officiated basketball and slow-pitch softball games for several years.

Employed by the Belmont Post Office, he has also been very active in Belmont Playmaker productions as an actor, has served as a choir director, was on the advisory committee for 12 years at Belmont Central Elementary, and for the past two years served as chairman of the advisory committee at Belmont Junior High.

Messer is presently on the Gaston County CETA Committee. He is also an avid booster of South Point High School athletics.

Messer is currently a member of Park Street Methodist Church. He is married to the former Margaret Puckett. They have four daughters, Lynn, Terri, Wanda and Barbara.

Messer handles all of the seating arrangements in the press box at Lineberger Stadium.

The next voice you may hear is that of Joe Messer.

Shrine Bowl And East-West Game

Since Belmont High School and Cramerton High School consolidated to form South Point High School in 1969, several of the Red Raider stars have played in prestigious post-season games.

One of the highest honors a high school senior football player can attain is to be selected to play in the Shrine Bowl football game each December in Charlotte. It pits 35 of the finest North Carolina seniors against a similar group from South Carolina.

The attraction benefits the crippled child, and for a player to be chosen to the team is truly a player's dream turned into reality. The East-West football game in Greensboro, played each July during the coaches clinic there, is also a prestigious honor. During the past 10 years, South Point has been represented by the following in the Shrine Bowl game:

- 1971—Scott Crawford
- 1973—Jim Stowe
- 1974—Roger Parker
